MRS. CAESAR YOUNG TO TESTIFY AGAINST NAN PATTERSON.

CAESAR YOUNG'S BEST FRIEND AND ACCUSED WOMAN EXCHANGE LOOKS OF HATE AS THEY MEET IN COURT.

NEW YORK, November 23.—When the trial of Nan Patterson was resumed to-day her attorney Abraham Levy, declared that, although the prosecution has erected several strong barriers through which the defense will have to batter its way to secure the acquittal of Miss Patterson, he had no fear that they would not succeed. He asserted that he would bring forward a witness who would tell a convincing story of having actually seen the shooting, no matter how strong the evidence of the people to the effect that no one was within the range of vision of the cab when the fatal shot was fired.

SAW THE SHOOTING.

This witness was a passenger on a street car passing across West Broadway, he said, and in his narrative he will swear from where he stood, though his glance was but momentary, he saw Nan Patterson's companion in the cab grasping a revolver in his hand and struggling with the young woman, who was endeavoring to wrest it from him.

BUY CONTRA COSTA SAYS ROBERT A. MILLS.

A Plan Suggested Whereby the Present Water Supply Can Be Purchased.

Editor TRIBUNE—Rather than "cut a ad try" new schemes for obtaining a water supply, why not purchase the Contra Costa Water Company's plant on the installment plan if they will set it at a fair price by giving our own citizens the first chance to subscribe to a fund for that purpose?

One million dollars or more, can readily be raised at a low rate of interest on obligations issued by the city each year, until the sum total is liquidated. Subscriptions of ten dollars or its multiple, could be taken from bona-fide citizens only.

twenty thousand patrons of the Contra Costa Water Company from whom a subscription of fifty dollars each would aggregate to one million dollars annually and pay for the plant in less than ten years, which would be far better than bond issue running forty years. Water rates could then be greatly reduced, and many subscribers would willingly accept portion of their loan in monthly water rates.

A community of interest would naturally grow out of this plan and make the result doubly assured.

DEAD LEFT ON FIELD

Five Submarine Boats From America Reach Japan.

TOKIO, November 23, 3 p. m.—Army headquarters yesterday received the following telegram from Manchurian headquarters:

"On Monday November 21 at 6:30 a. m. our detachment advanced towards Weitzku, north of Sienchuan, and attacked and occupied the enemy's bivouacking ground.

"Subsequently a superior force of the enemy gradually pressed our left flank and rear. Receiving reinforcements, we drove the enemy toward Chenzhulin at 9:30 a. m.

"The enemy's strength was about 600 infantry and 300 cavalry with four guns.

"The enemy left 39 dead bodies on the field. We took six prisoners as well as spoils including 30 rifles, entrenching tools, ammunition, etc.

"Our casualties were Sub-Lieut. Inouye wounded and 28 men killed or wounded."

SUBMARINE BOATS.

TOKIO, November 23.—Five submarine boats arrived at Yokohama to-day.

The submarine boats referred to in the dispatch from Tokio are probably the five boats shipped from Quincy Point, Mass., early in October last overland to the Pacific coast.

They were valued at nearly $4,000,000 and were understood to be intended for Japan.

The boats occupied seventeen steel flat cars and six box cars. They were shipped in sections and each car was carefully covered with canvas which concealed the contents.

There was not the slightest mark on any of the cars to indicate the contents or the destination and those who made inquiries on the subject received the stereotyped answer that the covered masses were a part of a large shipment of machinery destined for the West.

The woman dreamed that her savings had been stolen from a hiding place in the bottom of a sugar jar in the pantry.

Startled by the reality of the dream, she took a lamp in one hand and her baby under her arm and went to investigate.

The lamp fell and exploded.

Her husband, aroused from sleep in an adjoining room, made a brave attempt to put out the flames and finally succeeded with the aid of a matress, but only after himself is well as his wife and child had been rightfully burned.

Mrs. Couet died while being taken to a hospital.

CORRECTION NOT SUFFICIENT

NEWSPAPER MUST BE CAREFUL ABOUT MAKING CHARGES

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., November 23.—The Supreme Court today rendered its decision in the case of V. Z. Satterfield against a coroner's physician who was interrupted by the adjournment of court yesterday.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Mr. Levy in his cross examination led Dr. O'Hanlon back over the ground covered in his direct testimony yesterday. The witness described in detail the autopsy which he performed on Young's body.

The latter brought suit for damages and won it in a lower court. The decision of the court is that while there is no intent shown on the part of the publication the injury to the plaintiff was effective just the same, and the correction made five days afterward, did not invalidate the wrong done.

"If you had regarded the case as one of homicide would you have made a more careful examination?" asked Mr. Levy.

"I did not so regard it then as a case of homicide."

"Did you regard it as a case of suicide?"

"I did," the witness replied.

Dr. O'Hanlon said that while performing the autopsy he found three black marks on the second finger of Young's right hand and he stripped off pieces of skin, which were turned over to the District Attorney. The witness was not permitted to answer a question as to whether the black marks were made by gunpowder.

Another question as to whether he found any indication of gunpowder when he examined Nan Patterson's hands soon after the shooting also met with an objection from the prosecution and the Court directed the witness not to answer. At the conclusion of Dr. O'Hanlon's examination that part of his testimony in which he said that he considered the case to be one of suicide and no homicide when he performed the autopsy was stricken from the record on motion of Mr. Rand.

Counsel for the defense took an exception to the ruling of Justice Davis on this point.

CRUISER DOES THE WORK

Pennsylvania Makes Good Showing on Trial Trip.

ROCKPORT Mass November 23.—As timed from shore the new cruiser Pennsylvania made an average speed of at least 22.5 knots on her trial to day.

Her contract calls for 22 knots.

The Pennsylvania passed the finish mark as timed from shore at 15 seconds past 1 o'clock. According to shore time the Pennsylvania consumed 1.58.08 on run up the coast and 1.55.54 on the run back.

These figures show an average speed of about 22.75 knots for the course but owing to the fact that the time of the start was not clearly seen the speed may have been somewhat slower.

At any rate allowing a margin of four minutes at the start which could make the run up the coast consuming two hours three minutes and eight seconds the cruiser has shown a speed exceeding 22.5 according to shore estimate and by the same figures is the fastest in her class the average shown by the Colorado the first of her class to be tried having been 22.26 knots and that of the West Virginia three weeks ago 21.4.

PERJURY IS THE CHARGE

Two Men Are Taken Into Custody at Redding.

REDDING Cal., November 23.—H. W. Miller and W. H. Boren who are alleged to be out on bail on a charge connected with the timber land frauds in Oregon and who were recently arrested here on a State charge of obtaining money by false pretenses from people desirous of locating on timber lands in this county, were taken in custody this morning by Deputy United States Marshal Dunleavy of San Francisco charged with subversion of perjury made in the Federal Court in San Francisco.

Miller and Boren arrived here several weeks ago from Oregon and began making contracts with local people by the terms of which a number of people paid $36 ostensibly for the expenses of filing on timber lands that were to be conveyed to a Seattle company that it is alleged was found to have no existence.

In signing the warrant Justice Smith did not mention the matter of bail as he says it is out of his jurisdiction.

Attorney Tabor will commence proceedings very shortly to secure the client's release on the ground that the evidence upon which he is held is immaterial and irrelevant.

ON THE VALUE OF FRESH AIR

In the museum connected with the Edinburgh University is an exhibit that is a striking object lesson of the value of fresh air. A professor has secured the lungs of an Eskimo a Londoner and a coal miner. He has had them preserved by chemical process and they are now side by side in a glass case.

The Eskimo's lungs are pure white, the Londoner's lungs are a dirty brown and the coal miner's lungs are black. The Eskimo had kept his lungs clean not because he knew more about breathing than the Londoner or the coal miner but because he lived in a land of snow fields and spent his time in the open air—Chicago News.

THE FOLLY OF BETTING.

Lord Brampton better known as Sir Horace Hawkins the great English criminal lawyer judge and sportsman has just published his reminiscences. Speaking of what cured him of betting he relates that Harry Hill one of the characters of Tattersall's gave him this piece of advice as a youth.

Mr. Hawkins says you come here pretty regularly on Sunday afternoons but I advise you not to speculate among us for we know our business better than you do and you'll get nothing out of us any more than we should get out of you if we were able to dabble in your law for you know that business better than we do.

DRINK PLENTY OF WATER

(From the Chicago Chronicle.) Drink a glass of water when you get out of bed in the morning. Never mind the size of the glass, let the water be cold. You can't drink too much water but that isn't necessary. You may have washed your face and finished the experience. You may have had a cold drink to and die lightened in the shock and its reaction. The bruske use of the tooth brush has left your mouth clean and the breath sweet. But you are dirt still. Drink a glass of cold water and then that same ten of being clean inside. All that is curious in the cold bath cleanse the outside is artificial. That which should prompt a glass of water after sleeping is natural.

PROTECT INDIANS FROM LIQUOR

PRESIDENT LISTENS TO WORDS OF ADVICE FROM A NEWS-PAPER PROPRIETOR.

WASHINGTON Nov. 23.—Edward Rosewater, proprietor of the Omaha Bee who is due to present to the President Father Schell, the Nebraska Catholic priest who recently made serious charges concerning the treatment of the White Indians in Nebraska, was a guest of the President at luncheon.

Mr. Rosewater suggested that one way to eradicate the evils from which the Indians suffer is the Wimberg reservation being opened to the Indians so that they may establish a zone of protection about the Indians which will be from everywhere else. It is thought that the Nebrask legislature might enact such a law.

HOW TO OBTAIN CARGOES

Commerce Commission is investigating Freight Differentials.

PHILADELPHIA, November 23.—One of the principal witnesses before the Interstate Commerce Commission today in the investigation of the freight differentials was Edward Francis, general agent of the Alien line of steamships located at Chicago.

"In making the through rate from Chicago to Glasgow, what has been the effort of an inland rate which is lower to Philadelphia and Baltimore than to New York?" the witness was asked.

"It enables us to get cargoes for Philadelphia and Baltimore."

"Where the rates are even and the shipper can send to New York is cheaper as to other ports, which would reverse the preference?"

"New York, I think," said Chairman Knapp, addressing the witness.

"As you understand it, at Chicago you sell space on your steamers. If you need cargoes you can offer lower inland and ocean rates to and from Philadelphia."

"That is correct. The shipper has the option of selecting Philadelphia with the privilege of the differential."

"Who gets the differential?" Queries Mr. Pettit.

"Freight is in demand the shipper gets it, but if cargoes are plentiful, the carrier receives a portion of it."

Mr. Francis added that during years the differential is always ob-

No Harp Yet

PLEASING INCIDENT was reported yesterday that Mrs. M. M. Alexander of that city was confined to her bed for weeks with Bright's Disease. Dr. Miller of Renaissance told her she was in the strength of the Devil. She was confined to bed on a milk diet. She was growing thinner and weaker daily. She writes (Nov. 15th): "I truly believe I would now be playing on Calvary's harp if I had not come to your compound. Although flat in bed I sent to Hegeman's, New York, for it. Before taking to the bed I could not stand upright having to do the round distance of only twenty feet without failing if no one was with me to help me. I am now on my third bottle, and Tuesday morning I went to Tracy walking two and one-half miles to take the train."

Bright's Disease and Diabetes were, up to the discovery of Fulton's Compounds, considered incurable. Now, however, the Compounds about 5 per cent now recover. Evidences of Bright's Disease are dropsy and persistent kidney trouble, the latter being the chief symptom. The disease is third and physical weakness. Send for literature. Jno. J. ALAMEDA MAN MEETS TRAGIC DEATH.

PAUL STEINMETZ ACCIDENTALLY SHOOTS HIMSELF OFF POINT SAN PABLO.

ALAMEDA, November 23.—Paul Steinmetz of 1734 Eagle avenue, met with a tragic death yesterday afternoon off Point San Pablo, while on the scow Regina F. For the novelty of the experience more than anything else, Steinmetz went to work on the schooner a short time ago.

It has been the custom of Wickham and Steinmetz, as well as a third man, who completed the crew of the little craft, to keep a loaded shotgun handy that they might take an occasional shot at ducks when the opportunity offered.

When a short distance off Point San Pablo on the down trip yesterday Steinmetz saw a flock of ducks and hurriedly caught up the shotgun by the barrel and drew it toward him. The hammer caught on something and the charge of shot was sent into his side just under the heart.

Death was almost instantaneous, but his companions, hoping to get surgical aid in time to save the man's life, put the boat about and made a landing at Point San Pablo, from which point Dr. Barney was summoned, but Steinmetz was dead before he arrived. Deputy Coroner Sam Curry took charge of the body, which was brought to this place and later removed to Martinez.

Steinmetz was about 28 years of age and raised in Alameda. His father, Theodore Steinmetz, has for a number of years been engaged in the furniture business in this city.

The committee desired to enlist the influence of Mr. Roosevelt in an effort to induce the Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State, to deliver an address before the Union League Club in Washington's birthday.

The President informed the committee that Secretary Hay's health was not such as to permit him to make addresses in the near future and he felt that the Secretary ought not to be called upon to deliver a speech. The President expressed the wish also that members of the cabinet should not be required to deliver addresses. The members voiced the regrets of the club, but acquiesced in the President's wish.

WONDERFUL CLUSTER OF PEARLS.

The most extraordinary pearl—or rather cluster of pearls known as "The Southern Cross" is owned by a syndicate of Australian gentlemen, who value it at $60,000. So far as is known it occupies an absolute unique position. It consists of nine pearls naturally grown together in a regular manner as to form a perfect Latin cross. The pearl was discovered by a pearl fisher at Roebourne, West Australia. The first owner regarded it with so much superstition that he buried it, but it was discovered in 1874 and five years later was placed on exhibition in Australia.—Philadelphia Ledger.

ENDURANCE IN DANCING.

Some has recently entered the arena of odd competitions by promoting a dancing match, the prizes being awarded to the dancers who made the greatest number of steps in a given time. The records made were certainly astounding, for at the close it was found that a woman had actually danced 28,000 steps, while her newest rival, also a woman, had the creditable score of 21,000 steps. It is a tribute to the tenacity and superior endurance of the dancer that she did not reach even 16,000 steps.

In another dancing contest at Paris M. Vincent and Miss Scherlin transpired in waltzing for six hours and three-quarters without a moment's rest, while a Berlin man waltzed for sixteen consecutive hours from 9 a. m. to 1 o'clock the next morning.

GET RID OF VITALITY-SAPPERS.

Debt is a great force-waster, because every few men are soon beaten heavily down without any crying or being anxious. If you are so deeply involved that it is impossible to extricate yourself without going through bankruptcy, then take your bitter medicine at once and start again. Pay your debt in full afterward, when you are able. Get rid of all vitality-sappers. If you have taken an unfortunate step, retrace it if you can. Never allow what is dead and should be buried to keep bobbing up and draining off your life-capital in worry or vain regrets.—O. S. Marden's Success.

H. B. BELDEN IS AFTER THE CITY OFFICIALS

He Wants an Ordinance Passed in Favor of the Taxeaters of the City

"Oakland, Nov. 23, 1904. Editor TRIBUNE, Dear Sir:—Noting that the Finance Committee of the City Council had recommended the appointment of a janitor for Police Court No. 2 at a salary of $25 per month, I send the enclosed last Monday afternoon to City Clerk Thompson requesting him to present it to the Council at its meeting that evening, but assuming the prerogative of a censor he withheld the same, and I herewith hand it to you with the request that you give the same space in your valuable columns, for which I thank you in advance.

Yours truly,

H. B. BELDEN."

"Oakland, Calif., November 21, 1904. To the Honorable Council of the City of Oakland, Gentlemen:—The undersigned taxpayer respectfully presents for your consideration the following draft of an ordinance and petition for its adoption:

"Whereas, After one of the late county elections it became necessary that some of the supporters of the cause should be 'placed' at the taxeaters table, so the aid of the Legislature was invoked and an additional Police Court was created for our city and for which she had as much need as a canine has for a duplicate caudal appendage, thus making a place at the public crib for a justice, a court clerk and a bailiff, and

"Whereas, it was then found necessary that this temple for the dispense of justice at the expense of the taxpayers should be equipped with such swell furnishings that even some members of our Honorable Council stood aghast when the bill for the same came in, and

"Whereas, since the recent election there is a new crop of the faithful to be placed, and

"Whereas, although we are aware that the prevailing rates of janitor service for the care of offices and stores about town, more capacious and requiring more work than said Police Court No. 2 are from $4 to $6 per month, and although we are further aware that said Police Court adjoins the present encumbrance on City Hall Park, commonly and by courtesy known as the City Hall, and that Janitor Wilds thereof and his assistant would probably be glad to perform the additional service of Janitor for said Police Court for an additional $5 per month, but

"Whereas, we are here for the purpose of spending the taxpayers' money and, believing with Mayor Olney (see door, 8 to 9 a. m. and 4 to 5 p. m.) and Auditor Breed (9 to 10 a. m. on pay day only) in short hours and long snarles, therefore

"Be it ordained, that the position of janitor of said Police Court No. 2 be and the same is hereby created and the salary thereof be and the same is hereby fixed at the sum of $25 per month, and

"Be it further ordained, that the position of watchman of said Police Court No. 2 be and the same is hereby created and the salary thereof be and the same is hereby fixed at the sum of $150 per month, and

"Be it further ordained that the position of messenger of said Police Court No. 2 be and the same is hereby created and the salary thereof be and the same is hereby fixed at the sum of $100 per month, and that he be allowed $50 for keep of horse and buggy, the same to be supplied at the expense of the city."

"As there may be an opportunity of creating other positions which I have overlooked in foregoing draft, I would suggest that a Committee be appointed to canvass the situation so that this ordinance may be amended in that respect before its final passage. Yours for more graft,

H. B. BELDEN."

Socialists Again Downed at the Meeting of Federation.

SAN FRANCISCO. November 22.—The delegates to the American Federation of Labor realized at the opening of the session this morning that the overwhelming defeat administered to the Socialist element yesterday had not quieted them.

As an aftermath of the bitter debate Monday came the resolution, introduced by Delegate Victor Berger of the International Typographical Union, who stated that the convention voted for a measure abolishing the militia as it now exists.

The resolution called for the subsetting of the system now in vogue in Switzerland, where every man bears an arm, but each individual is permitted to keep the weapon in his own home. The advocates of the measure maintained that if members of the militia knew that working men were ready to shoot back there would be no usurpation of rights upon the part of the military branch. The resolution was overwhelmingly defeated by the delegates, after the debate had been prolonged for over an hour.

It was also voted that a resolution, likewise introduced by the Socialists, calling for the pensioning of all workers, after they had reached the age of 60 was also defeated.

The measure provided that to be eligible to this pension, which was placed at a minimum of $12 a month, the worker must have earned not more than an average of $1000 a year, and have been a citizen of the United States for 2 years. The discussion was lengthy, but the Socialists defeated the measure by a large vote.

A telephone message from a point about three miles south of the Fair grounds stated that the airship had turned about and for a time sailed into the wind. From the concourse it seemed that the airship was perfectly dirigible, as it turned in every direction and then continued to the north where the haze prevented the seeing of it from the view-sheds in the concourse.

It was observed that the propellers of the airship worked, for the craft sailed over the air-haze for 15 or 20 minutes and had apparently landed a mile beyond in the same direction.

It is just reported by telephone that the airship had started at a point about three miles from the starting place. When last seen the machinery was not working.

The landing was made in safety.

Benbow, when seen by an Associated Press representative who followed his flight from the World's Fair in an automobile, said that after leaving the concourse his gasoline can sprung a leak and he lost all the fuel for the motor. The airship being at the mercy of the wind, he decided to land in some open fields.

Benbow announced later that he will make another attempt to-morrow.

EVIDENCE IN WEBER CASE.

Attorney For Defendant Does Not Want Any Argument.

AUERBACH, Cal. November 22.—At the re-umption of the Weber case this morning, the prosecution rested.

Attorney Tabor asked that any statements made by Adolph to the district attorney or sheriff and taken down by the court reporter be read, in order that the defense might use the information to be gained from them.

District Attorney Robinson opposed it, claiming that any such statement was a privileged communication under the code of civil procedure.

The question was argued at length, and the court sustained the objection. The reporter testified that one statement was made on November 11, the day after the fire, in the presence of District Attorney Robinson and Sheriff Koenig, and the reporter then stated:

District Attorney Robinson asked the court to hold the defendant without bonds, the charge being murder. Attorney Tabor said the defense was willing to submit the case without argument.

CLEVELAND. Nov. 22.—A meeting here of prominent business men held at the Union Club, the National Merchant Marine League of the United States has been organized with the object of restoring the American flag to the high seas. Yet it is being carried over sea today under foreign flags. The tonnage of American ships engaged in the foreign trade aggregates only 870,000 tons, while there is not today a single ship building anywhere in the United States for this trade.

The situation is critical and calls for immediate action.

Escape By Leaping From Windows of Burning Building.

ST. LOUIS. November 22.—Thirty negroes, men, women and children, penned in on the second and third floors of a burning Morgan street building house today, saved themselves from death by jumping from windows into tarpeaus held by firemen, by groping their way to the street, down smoke and flame-filled stairways and by climbing through scuttle to the roof and then down to buildings to be taken down by firemen.

Four women, injured in their efforts to escape are at the city hospital. One of them is unconscious and probably will die.

Another who discovered the fire and dashed into the building to arouse the inmates suffered a broken leg. She was imprisoned by the fire, forced to hang out of window to escape smoke and dropped to the ground.

Thanksgiving Day Reflections.

Tomorrow we give thanks—and eat. Ours is a comfortable custom of tickling the palate with rich viands while we bend our heads with contrite hearts and express our thanks in devout spirit for the blessings and abundance Providence has seen fit to bestow upon us. When we are pleased with ourselves it is easy to be pleased with the Divine Power that orders the Universe. When we are sure of a full stomach and an appetite to give zest to the viands we can properly appreciate Thanksgiving Day and enjoy the pleasures it holds for those who have health and the means to grace the table with the best the market affords. A groaning board prompts no groaning of the spirit. Our deserts never seem so large to our inner consciousness as when the turkey is fine and we can eat without stint, fearing neither dyspepsia nor the unpaid bill of the purveyor. Substance is comforting to the mind. We can thank the Lord that we have received what is coming to us—the choice cuts, the bits of liver and the largest oysters in the stuffing—and are indisposed to find fault with Providence. While we feel that things might have been better—our rewards larger and things somewhat better ordered—we magnanimously acknowledge that matters might be worst, a great deal worse. We are pleased to say we do not grumble or complain, and the grace we offer is not seasoned with repinings. We are too well bred for that. If perchance we deem the turkey might have been larger or tenderer, we make a virtue of self denial, and graciously glaze our self-satisfaction over the shortcomings of the Deity. Being on excellent terms with ourselves, we like to be on good terms with the Lord. We cheerfully give Him credit for doing the best He knows how.

But there are those in the world, so poorly are things ordered, who have but little to eat, even on Thanksgiving Day, and if they have the fish and the game and the turkey have no appetite to enjoy them. Death and sickness cannot be brought to observe Thanksgiving Day. Want is as haggard and insistent then as at any other time. Neither death, disease nor famine can be induced to knock off for a day that people may enjoy a temporary respite from their pressing attentions. This is an inconvenience all round. It disturbs the thankfulness of the sound in mind and body—and piety—who sit in thankfulness around well lighted and well laden boards. Why should the poor be always with us? Why should there be death in the midst of life? Why cannot good men eat their dinner in pious content without having to reflect that there are others in the world with little to be thankful for and no dinner at all? Why should there be sad hearts on a day the President has set aside for giving thanks for the blessings Providence has vouchsafed us? Why should death stalk through the land and snatch beloved ones almost from the festal board while we are preparing to thank the Almighty for what He has done for us, and while we congratulate ourselves on what we have done? We may condescendingly admit that the Lord has done pretty well considering, and give warm approval to our own achievements, but alas, the fever will not cool because we are about to dine well. Nor will sorrow be less poignant or pain less torturing because we are about to make offerings to our God and our stomachs. The cut glass, the shining silver and the sparkling wines at a thousand boards cannot stop love from grieving over the bier, cannot pour healing balm into wounded hearts, cannot bring back the hopes, the friends and the tender companionships of the past. While the turkey is smoking on the altar—the table, we mean—there will be hearts that bleed and grieve yet unsuaged. There will be creeps on the door. Tears will fall. There will be mourning in many households for days and dear ones that are departed. There will be weary waiting and watching by sick beds. There will be hearts torn by anguish while the lips smile in gay company.

But it is the way of the world. Wretchedness as well as pleasure is the inheritance of the race. We give thanks when we are happy. We supplicate in affliction. Penitence is associated with fasting and self denial. Conscious virtue rejoice and is exceeding glad. Prosperity fills the belly and poverty a pauper's grave. So let all eat, drink and be merry while they may, for each in his turn will suffer in spirit if not in body while the rest of the world is gay.

In voting down the resolution forbidding members of the trades unions from joining the militia of the several States the labor convention displayed both wisdom and patriotism. It is significant that the resolution came from the Socialist wing of the federation. It was offered by Victor Berger, one of the group of Socialists who are trying to depose Samuel Gompers. The opposition the resolution provoked is ample evidence that the Federation of Labor is not committed to lawlessness, or is in any way inimical to the Government and the enforcement of its authority. The defeat of this incendiary resolution coupled with the decisive vote sustaining President Gompers is gratifying evidence that the Federation of Labor is standing on the sure ground of constitutional government and social order.

The horse show in New York appears to have brought together an unusually large congregation of asses.

Governor Chamberlain's Suggestion

The suggestion of Governor Chamberlain of Oregon that the Electoral College unanimously elect Theodore Roosevelt is impracticable, but it possesses an element of sane wisdom that makes it worthy of attention. Governor Chamberlain is a Democrat of the Southern school, his native State being Mississippi. His suggestion therefore emanates from the center of the bitterest opposition to the President, and may be taken as a tardy recognition on the part of one Democratic leader at least of the singular misconception regarding the President's character and intentions that has popularly prevailed in the South. The element of good faith will of course forbid Electors chosen to vote for Judge Parker voting for Roosevelt, but if they could find a way of doing so without violating party obligations this would indeed be an era of good feeling second only to the second administration of James Monroe. Monroe was re-elected unanimously, though one Vermont Elector did vote against him as a matter of form, stating that he was in favor of Mr. Monroe but deemed it unwise to set the precedent of electing Presidents by acclamation. Never before has such a cordial good feeling existed between citizens of all sections of the Union. Never were the asperities of partisan politics so softened and so devoid of excuse. The President is not a candidate to succeed himself. The country is enjoying a season of unexampled prosperity, and our domestic political differences relate to method rather than principle. The President is shown that he prefers to be the leader of the people rather than a party, and is earnestly desirous of making conditions better in every part of the country. He is as far from wishing to discriminate against the South as a man can be who desires to do justice to all sections and all classes. Without doubt he appreciates and sympathizes with the peculiar problems the South is called on to face, and if the Southern leaders were not so wrong-headed and so grossly mistaken in their view they would find in him such a friend as they now candidly admit. Abraham Lincoln would have been had he lived.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

The OAKLAND TRIBUNE has come out with a strong endorsement of the candidacy of Phil M. Walsh of Alameda County for Speaker of the Assembly, and argues that for geographic, political and sundry other reasons, Mr. Walsh's present opponents in the contest for Speakership honors will be unable to muster enough strength in caucus to carry away the coveted plum. In all probability the question of Assembly organization and the selection of Speaker will be intimately involved with the election of a United States Senator to succeed Bard, and it is not overstating the case to say that no one of the candidates at present in the race for Speaker has any real, positive assurance that he can win. The Republican is in a position to know that there are dark horses in the fight, and one of the dark horses is not very far away from Alameda County, either. There is no doubt but what Walsh would make an efficient presiding officer. Should he win out, that would dispose of Senator Leavitt's candidacy for President pro tem of the Senate, for Alameda could scarcely hope to have Governor, Speaker and President pro tem, all at one time.—Santa Rosa Republican.

THANKSGIVING.

Oh, come with joyful songs on this glad day of days,
Enter His gates with thanks, and unto His courts with praise;
Another year from God with goodness has been crowned,
All the paths drop fatness, and all things good abound.

The pastures all are clothed with flocks, the valleys smile with corn,
And Peace serenely basks in the golden Autumn morn.
The horn of plenty overflows with fruit, and flower, and grain,
And earth is visited with the early and late rain.

The loveliest Autumn days are here, so glorious and so rare,

And sweet perfume from field and wood float on the ambient air.

As ancients in the days of old with joyful hearts did bring,
To heathen gods, of all things rare, a native offering,
So we, but with a loftier faith, our heart's rich tribute give,
To God the only wise and true, in whom we move and live.
Then praise the Lord ye hosts of men all over this fair land,
The rich, the poor, the high and low, join in the chorus grand.
Let one great tide of praise o'er all this broad earth roll,
Ch. praise the Lord forever more! Oh praise Him now my soul.

Never he fails to get his ideas large, Are way ahead of a judge's charge.

He knows more law than the Court of Appeals.

And he sits in with serious squeals;

He sits around like a barrel of oysters.

While the horrified courtroom takes to its heels.

What he has made for God only knows,

But he turns on his mental Slocum hose.

Which, though it won't work, gives him lots of fun.

And his vanishing audience cut and run.

His brain is nebulous, foggy and slow,

Put his tongue and his jaw keep on the go.

He only uses a proper word;

His notions are crazy, grotesque and absurd.

He sits in here and he pokes at the bar.

While counsel can only sweat and swear;

They dare not antagonize the man.

Though he is a fool does all he can

To get things into a hopeless tangle.

He sits there in a knot wrangle.

He knows no more than an old coal barge,

And really never should be at large.

He takes the case from the counsel's hands,

And, weaving around it the luminous fog,

Creates a ground of mystery and perhaps, suspicion, of may and perhaps.

He finally dumps it into the lap of his fellow jurors, who know no more

At the end of the case than they did before.

And when they into the evidence delve,

He tries to be the last darter twice.

He tries to decide the case himself,

And leave his brethren on the shelf.

And returning to court with boundless pride,

He hears his verdict "set aside!"

Charles S. Requa, in the Trade-Mark Record.

BRIEF TALES.

In the course of a brief Southern tour, John D. Rockefeller is credited with having said, "I attended church one Sunday morning in a quaint little wooden meeting house where the pews were of unpainted pine boards. The minister was a good man, a sincere man, a really eloquent man, but he had an unfortunate habit of bellowing. He bellowed like a bull. His voice shook the rafters. The sound overwhelmed the sense and it was often impossible had he lived.

SAYS FATHER TOLD HER GRAND JURY REPORTS

Marion Van Horn Takes Mother's Side--Knopf Denies Hugging and Kissing Incident.

Daughter testified against father and spent their Thanksgiving there.

VAN HORNE AND THE NURSE.

An attempt to show by the witness that her father was familiar with Josephine Brown, the nurse who testified to having seen Mrs. Van Horn and Adolf Knopf go into the Chicago House, failed as Judge Ogden ruled that such testimony was not relevant.

No one of her testimony, however, went to disapprove the charge made by Van Horn against the faithfulness of his wife and her actions with Adolf Knopf.

RISQUE STORIES.

Marion Van Horn, the witness, is a girl eighteen years of age and lived for a time with her father and kept house for him at San Rafael, while he was engaged in teaching school there and she testified that he told her several risque stories called up by incidents current at that time.

The old story of the drill master and his regiment of young women was told of them and another was in regard to some of the testimony in the now famous Von Schleicher case which was on trial at that time. A third was about a priest and a girl and a fourth was brought up by girls fighting in their backyard.

This testimony was allowed by Judge Ogden, upon the ground that in each a divorce was granted it might enable him to decide which of the parents ought to have the care of the children.

NO TURKEY DINNER.

In a cross-complaint filed in answer to Van Horn's charge of adultery, Mrs. Van Horn has set up one of cruelty and in this connection Marion Van Horn testified that one Thanksgiving day her father left them in San Rafael with nothing to eat and when her mother asked him for money with which to buy a turkey he said "You don't want turkey," and that he subsequently rode into the place.

NEVER KISSED HER.

He denied that he had ever kissed Mrs. Van Horn and contradicted the statement made by the Van Horn cook that she had seen him kiss her upon two different occasions. He denied the testimony of Ross Van Horn, the plaintiff entirely in regard to the alleged occurrence on the night of January 15th, when Van Horn testified that he saw Knopf holding his wife in his arms and kissing her.

In his denial of having been to the Chicago House he also contradicted the testimony of Mrs. Ross Kelly, the lady who positively identified him and Mrs. Van Horn as the couple to whom she had rented a room three different nights.

PRINCE VISITS LETS PRISONERS THE FAIR. GO FREE

COUSIN OF THE JAPANESE RULER IS ROYALLY ENTERTAINED.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—Prince Fushimi made another tour of the World's Fair today, completing his inspection of the exhibit palaces and State pavilions. Wherever the Japanese Prince went he was received cordially, and at the Filipino village the natives gave a special exhibition of dancing and war songs.

Later, as the guest of Mayor Wells at the City Hall, the cousin of the Mikado was accorded a reception. A trip to the regular army post at Jefferson Barracks followed.

PROVIDE FOOD FOR THE POOR

LAST Tuesday evening the children of Union Street Presbyterian Sunday-school held their annual harvest home festival. Each class brought its gifts for the poor and contributed its part to the evening's program. The Sunday-school room was thronged with children and interested parents, and large tables were arranged as a platform for the reception of the gifts.

The exercises by the various classes were original and in some instances unique. A class of girls impersonated Red Cross nurses, bearing a stretcher and numbered trays containing various things. A class of boys appeared as butchers, bearing half a lamb on their shoulders, and recited a verse appropriate to the gift.

The exercises were an attractive feature. Several of the children rendered creditable musical selections and recitations. The girls sang and overjoyed two large audiences, and were most gratifying.

DINNER FOR DEFEATED ONES

NEW YORK, November 2.—A dinner has been given by the prohibition party of the city of New York to the defeated candidates. Nearly every prominent person in the State organization and national delegation were present. Among the guests were at least four men who at one time had faced certain defeat as candidates for Governor of the Empire State, but all the speeches were of the most optimistic sort.

Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the National Committee, said that according to his most conservative estimate the vote for Dr. Swallow, the Presidential candidate, would be 600,000.

That was an increase over the 1900 party, which was 260,000. He predicted that at some time in the future a new force will appear in national politics in the shape of a party that has a great moral issue, of which he declared there is none greater than Prohibition.

PUT HER BOARDERS TO BED

Accommodations at the County Infirmary Are Not Adequate.

Says His Wife Misbehaved With Her Male Lodgers.

Louis Dagner, a state built in, stated that the Grand Jury impaneled on September 19 last met this morning and adjourned for one month and the meeting this morning was in conformity with the adjournment. The jurors reported to Judge Hall at 11 o'clock and presented the following report:

"In the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, State of California; to the Honorable, the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, State of California:—The present grand jury was drawn by the Hon. S. P. Hall, Judge of Department 5 of the Superior Court, on the 19th day of September, A. D. 1904, and thereafter organized by electing D. Bronson as foreman and immediately entering upon the discharge of their duties as such grand jury."

"Such matters as were brought before the grand jury were investigated, and upon investigation, the evidence produced did not, in the opinion of the grand jury, justify further action."

"The previous grand jury reported in due course upon the books of the various county officers, having for the purpose of investigating the same appointed an expert. This grand jury, meeting so soon after the report of the former grand jury had been filed, did not deem it necessary to appoint an expert at this session."

"The grand jury visited the jails in the county and the public buildings. Accommodations at the County Infirmary for Incurables are not at all adequate. This ward is entirely unattractive in its present condition for the purposes for which it is used. The patients, who occupy it are principally paralytics and those whose limbs have rendered them permanently helpless. While it may require considerable expense to properly remodel this ward, we feel that it is such an expense as should be readily incurred, and recommend the complete remodeling of this ward, so that it may best meet the ends for which it is intended."

"The grand jury having finished and investigated such matters as were called to its attention or deemed by them necessary to be investigated, will submit this their final report, and敬请. Mainly wish that this honorable court may now discharge them from further service. Respectfully submitted."

"C. J. HEESEMAN,
'Foreman,
E. D. BRONSON,
Secretary."

The members were thanked by the Judge for the consideration given to the business brought to their attention and discharged them from their attendance in court.

Dainty Must Carry Top Weight in Stake Event.

The First Big Event of the California Jockey Club's Winter Season Will Be the Thanksgiving Handicap Tomorrow on the Local Track.

The Los Angeles Jockey Club Will Formally Open the Winter Racing Season Down South Tomorrow When the Thanksgiving Handicap Will Be Contested.

Three favorites, two second choices and a 7 to 1 shot landed first money on the local track yesterday. So the public had just a shade the best of the bookmakers.

There were two very close finishes yesterday. Melsterisinger and Flaneur had a hot struggle down the stretch, the latter getting first by a very narrow margin. In the third race Cerro Santa and H. L. Frank had it out, the former annexing the purse.

In the fifth race Sol. Lichtenstein and El Pato had a merry race for place, the black horse just winning out. There was quite a bunch bet on the pawnbroker for.

Jockeys Russell and Holmes arrived yesterday at the local track.

Jockey Hilderbrand left for Los Angeles last night. He is to ride to the Thanksgiving handicap at Ascot.

Clem Jenkins arrived from New York to day and intends to get some mounts here.

It is reported that Jockey Hansch will arrive here in a few days from France.

Beautiful and Best, also Goldfinger and Best Man arrived at the track to-day.

HARNESS HORSES TO CONTEST.

LOS ANGELES DRIVING CLUB WILL GIVE MATINEE TOMORROW.

Lovers of light harness horses will be given a chance to see bursts of speed at Los Angeles tomorrow at the opening of the Los Angeles Driving Club's show at Agricultural Park.

Since October 1 the club has added to its membership list over sixty names. Among these are some of the most prominent business and professional men in the city, and many of them are owners of good stock. Milo M. Potter has renewed his membership and will soon have a string of driving horses at the park. There are many others who have promised entries to future meetings.

A change has been decided on by the club in the matter of racing rules. Henceforth each member speed early in his race, but after four and a half miles he is to be allowed to break his sulky. The new rule will be adopted all over the East and will probably meet with favor here. While it will militate slightly, a man's great speed there will not be difference enough to mar the work of horse used to sulkies.

In the 2:20 pace will be Glen, L. W. Lohengrin, Wandering Rose, Willie Jim, Venus N., and Gladys N.

In the 2:30 race will be Latta G., Charming Dan, Red Don, Roy K., and in the 2:35, Nesterbird, Maggie McKinley, Don M. Jasper Paulson, Albuquerque.

In the 2:30 race George Anderson, George, Belle Mason, Rex B. Gen, Eddie, Frank McKinley.

In the team race: Jiggs De and Kitchener, driven by Boaz Duncan; Black Jim and Black Boss, driven by Alex Hunter.

Free for all trot: Roselle, Rita H., Brinley, and Dandy.

Free for all pace for the Erkenbrecker Cup: Toungut, Midnight, Henry N., Welcome Mack and Silvery Tip.

The officials will be: Judges—Ferguson, Erkenbrecker, Dr. M. L. Moore, Dr. de Barth Shorb; Timers—C. A. Canfield, J. A. Fairchild and Walter L. Vail.

UNION MEN ARE ACCUSED OF PLOT TO KILL.

Apprentice Tells How He Was Instructed in the Use of Dynamite.

CINCINNATI November 3—Placken and Edward Trainor were charged to-day to being accessories to the murder of Samuel Weekly, a non-union molder, on October 7.

William Friend, alias Patten, who is held as the principal in the killing of Weekly in an interview, denies all knowledge of a plot in which he drew the short straw to do the shooting and others were assigned to their respective parts.

It is stated that Fred Ranhauser, the apprentice, age 19 to day repeated his confession without contradictions and is confirmed by his father, who is also under arraignment.

Young Ranhauser insists that John Hook committee man of the local union, met him and his father on the night of November 16. Later that night Hook brought in Joseph Hollowell, who went out for the dynamite after Hook had made the arrangements with the apprentice. Hollowell was to get the dynamite at Heinekamp's office finding that place closed Ranhauser said.

"I was then asked to come to Heinekamp's office Sunday morning, November 20. I went alone to Heinekamp's office at the appointed time and met Joseph Hollowell, who went from there to Valentine's office where we met Valentine."

"I was instructed in the use of dynamite by Joseph Hollowell, at the same time he told me to destroy the mold of Shear Punch Valentine agreeing to pay me $20 if I succeeded in destroying the Shear Punch."

I was told by Hollowell to destroy all the molds I could and was given five cartridges by Hollowell.

"I left Valentine's office a 10 o'clock and returned to my home telling my mother what I was expected to do. I went to work as usual Monday November 21."

In the remaining part of his confession Ranhauser tells of putting the cartridges in lathes at 3:30 p.m. November 21 and of the first discharge at 5 p.m. while the workers were pouring metal in the mold.

There were no disturbances at the foundries in Cincinnati, Covington and Newport during the night and no threatening conditions as the men went to work in "open shops" to-day.

Superintendent F. S. Reed who has been in charge of seventeen Chicago detectives here went to Detroit to-day to investigate reports regarding Thomas Braaten and other refugees. Meantime the police of three cities who had been holding aloof are rendering a assistance.

Dr. and Mrs. Pedar S. Bruguiere Are Now Living Apart.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 23—On account of the prominence of the couple, society on both sides of the bay has been greatly shocked to learn that Dr. and Mrs. Pedar S. Bruguiere have allowed a difference to come between them and have quarreled and parted. Mrs. Bruguiere has taken temporary refuge in the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. E. A. Bruguiere, 1820 Franklin street. Her comfort has been arranged for by the latter who has telegraphed household expenses from New York.

Dr. Bruguiere is also said to have deserted his beautiful home at 2900 Van Ness avenue and is now domiciled at his club until such a time as domestic tranquility is restored.

INTERESTING, IF TRUE.

You Can Try It For Yourself and Prove It.

One gram of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 200 grams of meat, eggs or other wholesome food and thus claim has been proven by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut hard-boiled eggs into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated in the mouth, and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar containing warm water heated to 98 degrees (the temperature of the body) and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours. At the end of which time the egg will be completely digested and it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg in the bottle it will do to the egg or meat in the stomach and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Tablets with safety and benefit if they are taken in the proper doses.

MARRIES BANK CASHIER

NEW YORK November 23—After six hours deliberation the jurors at Peterson No. 7 in the case of William P. Richards and Ernest Hart charged with malitia having caused the wreck at Midvale July 10 in which seven people lost their lives, agreed that they could not reach a verdict and asked to be discharged. Judge Scott inquired if there were any points on which they needed instruction but received a reply in the negative and it is understood Mr. Martin, his demand from the court for the time of explanation and the right to have his attorney present, was granted.

It was stated that while the majority in both cases leaned toward a verdict of guilty the minority held out that the railroad company was at fault for failing to keep the semaphore in good order.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merits and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world-wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cents for full-sized packages in every drug store in the United States and Europe as well as in Canada.

"The idea of our being parted is ridiculous," remarked the young matron last evening at the home of the elder Mrs. Bruguiere. "Why my husband was here only this morning."

Her husband declined to discuss his domestic affairs except in the presence of his attorney, Walter G. Holmes, who has offices in the Mills building. Once in the law office Holmes spoke for him, saying:

LAWYER ADMITS QUARREL

"It is true that Bruguiere and his wife have had a quarrel and are temporarily not living together. No suit for divorce has been commenced nor is one contemplated. Neither party has grounds for a divorce. Their little spat cannot possibly interest the public."

A SOCIETY FAVORITE

Before her marriage Mrs. Bruguiere was Marion Andrews, a young woman who was renowned in New York and New Jersey society for her beauty and attractive style and splendid costumes. She is from the Southern States where her family is connected with the Mays of Baltimore and the Hobsons of South Carolina.

It is but recently that she returned from the East with several fetching French hats known in Paris as Les Bretons and many trunks of the latest Parisian gowns.

DR. BRUGUIERE TWICE MARRIED

Marion Andrews is Dr. Bruguiere's second wife. He first married Madeline McClellan, an Oakland girl, whose father was at one time a Southern Pacific attorney with a salary of $10,000 a year.

ELOPED WITH OAKLAND GIRL

The elopement of the couple created quite a sensation in Oakland a few years ago. After a short, stormy experience, she divorced Dr. Bruguiere. She is still known as Madeline Bruguiere and for several years has been with Harry Corson Clarke's company and several other combinations. It was two years ago that Bruguiere married his present wife.

It had been the hope of Mrs. Bruguiere that she might keep the quarrel with her husband a secret until the end of the year. She expects at that time to take a trip to Europe with her intimate friend Miss Louise Tillman. After crossing the Atlantic they will join Dr. Tilden Tillman and Mrs. Josephine Tillman, who are at present in Australia.

In the meantime the separation will furnish a new morsel of discussion over the tea cups.
